Thank you for letting me know that you've found a room for the party. Nearly everyone I've spoken to says they can come. So now there are just a few decisions we need to make.

Great!

First of all we need to organise the food. Shall we ask everyone to bring something or shall we pay a company to provide it for us?

Say which and why

I'm not sure what to do about the music because the band we tried to book can't come. Have you got another suggestion?

Finally, I've had an idea. Why don't we make it a fancy dress party? What do you think?

Yes ...

Speak to you soon.

- 2 Your English class has been discussing how useful different subjects studied at school are. Now your teacher has asked you to write an essay answering this question:

'Which two subjects studied at school are most useful for our future lives?'

Write your essay.

- 3 You see this advertisement in an international student magazine:

Holiday Hire Shop
On the Beach

We provide equipment for tourists to hire – bicycles, swimming and sports equipment.

We need an English-speaking person to help in the shop who:

- likes meeting people
- is interested in sport
- can advise on the equipment.

Write and tell us why you are suitable for the job.

Contact Mr James Carlton, Manager.

Write your letter of application.

- 4 Your teacher has asked you to write a story for the college English language magazine. The story must begin with the following words:

It all began when I found an old key at the back of the kitchen cupboard.

Write your story.

- 5 Answer one of the following two questions based on one of the titles below. Write the letter (a) or (b) as well as the number 5 in the question box on the opposite page.

- (a) Great Expectations by Charles Dickens

Pip's life suddenly changes when he becomes rich. Does this money make him happy?

Write your essay.

- (b) Phantom of the Opera by Gaston Leroux

This is part of a letter you have received from your English-speaking penfriend, Robin.

I really enjoyed Phantom of the Opera, but can you explain why Erik allowed Christine to leave and marry Raoul? I thought Erik wanted to keep her for himself ...

Write soon.

Robin

Write a letter to Robin.
